MEMPHIS SOLDIER WOUNDED IN ACTION

WOUNDED IN ACTION

Corp. James J. Edwards, 22 years old, son of Mrs. E. J. Edwards, 355 Thomas street, has been severely wounded in action, according to an official dispatch to his mother from a British base hospital, and also a letter from the solder himself. Although no details of the action are known, Mrs. Edwards has been apprised that her son was injured in the left thigh by shrappel. He is a member of Company C. 119th infantry, 20th division, and enlisted in July, 1917, with Capt. France for a year. Before enlistment he was employed by the John Gerber company.

In a recent letter home he told of the thrill he experienced in going over the top and how hot the Moraphis boye top and how bot the Moraphis boye top and how bot the Moraphis boye top and how bot the Moraphis boye made it for "Jerry" Besides his mother

EIGHT SOUTHERNERS ARE PRISONERS OF GERMANS

TO REMAIN FAIR.

Continued fair weather is forecasted for Memphia for Wednesday, although indications in the far Northwest were favorable for Gooler weather by the latter part of this week. Weather observers said the records out of the state of Washington Tuesday morning indicated formation of a cold wave, but it might hove across the Northern part of the United States.

"For six years we have used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in our family and feel we could not possibly do without it, especially for the children." (From a letter to Dr. Caldwell written by Mrs. Earl Cowell, Coment City, Mich.)

Children become constipated as readily as do their elders, and the result is equally distressing. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is ideal for children because of its pleasant taste, positive, yet gentle, action, and its freedom from opiates and narcotic drugs.

"The Iron Hand, from the colorful pen of Hall Caine had in which his son, Derwent Hall Caine is the star, is a gripping illustration of the cruel and rejentless methods employed in warfare as attributed to the German. Caine has taken the famous utterance of Kaiser Wilhelm at Potrama as the thesis for his playlet and around it has woven an illuminating sketch, illustrative of the barbaric tone of Wilhelm's message to his ill-fated people.

AMUSEMENTS

of Wilhelm's message to his ill-fated people.

Derwent Hall Caine is possessed of real artistic ability. He reads his lines emphatically, strivingity and well. Through his interpretation of his father's plot, must be attributed most of its success. Others in the company are well chosen, notably among them being Celete Scudder, whom Memphians will remember from her appearance here in the stellar role in "The Bird of Paradise."

Libonati hits a responsive chord with his afforhenic harmonies and ragtime and answered several encores.

Lowell Drew and Vesta Wallace have a refreshing and well handled little camedy skit in "At the Soda Fountain", while Irene and Bobby Smith are two talented girls but their act has a rough ending.

Loew's Lyceum.

Montagu Love and Miss June Elvidge are two picture film stars whose names are as well known to Memphians as any in motion pictures. Thousands have seen them in their various releases which have been shown at Loew's Lyceum, but when the doors of the Lyceum are thrown open again. Thursday afternoon, Memphis patrons will be given the opportunity of seeing these two stars in person. Marcus Loew is sending them to the Lyceum as a feature of the reopening bill and they will present themselves in a little vaudeville skit of their cwn making in addition they will be featured in "The Cabaret," their latest five-reel release. Heading the vaudeville bill proper is "The Betting Bettys," a new musi-all comedy with a half dozen comely girls and good comedians. Grace-Hazgrid is also a new feature on the incoming program.

Loew's Princess.

The capacity of Loow's Princess has been taxed to its utmost since Sunday afternoon when the first showing of "The Great Love" was made. This master production of David W. Griffith presents practically the same cast as "The Birth of a Nation" and "Hearts of the World," considered two of the world's best cinema productions, Lilian Gish is the central figure of this interesting story of the great war and her supporting stars are Robert Harron and Henry Walthall in addition to a score of others. Owing to difficulties in transportation, the seventh and last reel of "The Great Love" was not shown Sunday and Monday but the completed picture will be shown Tucsday.

MEMPHIS SPECIALIST TO RECLAIM WOUNDED

Announcement that Dr. Fontaine Moore has received a commission as lieutenant in the medical officers' received corps, with assignment to Fort McHenry, a reclamation hospital near within the next few days, means that the government will utilize his exceptional talents as a specialist for the reclamation of American wounded. The efforts of the government will be directed to this work for many months after the close of the war and the wounded will have the benefit of the best attention that medicine and surgery can provide.

THE 18-INCH HEADER

Of the Memphis Gas & Electric Company's Beale Avenue Power House That Gave Way Last Monday Morning Was All Special Fittings.

There is no fitting this size carried in the Memphis market and a flance to reduce this is-inch pipe to a size that is carried here would have to be made to order, as the drilling on the fittings of the is-inch header is special. All of the foundries that make this kind of material are so loaded with war orders that they were not in a position to make this flange.

The Memphis Welding company made a flance from boiler plate and welded this flange to a 12-inch pipe and reduced the 18-inch header to 12 inches. This pipe was delivered to the Reale avenue plant Saturday afternoon and the power plant's workmen had made all the connections up to where this pipe was to connect. In about two hours after the 12-inch pipe was delivered by the Memphis Welding company the power plant had ateam on and picked up their hormal load as though nothing had ever happened. The flanke which the Memphis Welding company made and the welding at this flange on the pipe was a splendid piece of work and showed the welding company is in a position to handle any kind of a welding job on very short notice, adv.

RISE IN MISSISSIPPI EXPECTED BY EMERY

With the Tennessee and Chio rivers rising rapidly at several points local United States Weather Observer S. C. United States Weather Observer S. C. Emery Tuesday predicted that there will be a stage of at least 15 feet in the river at Memphis within a few days. Planters in the upper bends who have several hundred bales of cotton on ground near the river are endeavoring to get it shipped before the rise gets south of Cairo. The steamer Control with two barges has left for a cargo near Oscoola.

OLKAHOMA WATCHING TWO DISTRICT CONTESTS

CKLAHOMA CITY. Nov 5.—With the chief interest centering about the contest in the First and Eighth congressional districts, where strong efforts are being made to swing the districts to the Demogratic column, election day dawned in Okiahoma with a promise of fair weather but a light vote. In siddition to the election of a fail state ticket, one United States senator and eight congressmen, the extension of franchise to women is also an issue. The suffrage amendment to date, however, has occasioned but little interest.
